Exhibit 1

DomainAgents

Terms & Conditions

- 1. Any and all offers, counter-offers made via DomainAgents are legally binding for 14 days and must be entered into in good faith. Agreements are legally binding through the completion of the transaction.
- Agreements reached via DomainAgents are subject to a service fee starting at 10% and decreasing based on agreement size. The service fee and associated escrow fees will be paid by the domain buyer.
- 3. If DomainAgents cannot present the buyer's offer to the domain owner for any reason, DomainAgents will provide the buyer a free DomainAgents credit at no additional cost which may be used to make a second offer.
- 4. DomainAgents' service will be deemed fully delivered on presentation of the buyer's opening offer.
- 5. Any valuation estimate provided or implied by DomainAgents, its management or its staff are based on available market information and knowledge. These estimates should be used as a guideline only. DomainAgents can not guarantee the valuation estimates whether explicit or implied.
- 6. The buyer confirms that neither their organization, nor themselves, claims a legal right to the registration of the domain they are seeking to acquire. If inquiring on behalf of another party, the buyer confirms that this party does not claim a legal right to the registration of the domain listed above and that the buyer is authorized by said party to make this representation.
- Unless otherwise communicated by DomainAgents, all transactions initiated using DomainAgents will be completed via Escrow.com.
- 8. In the event a buyer reneges on an agreement to purchase a domain name, full transactional details including buyer identity will be provided to the seller and may be made publicly available.

https://domainagents.com/terms